A completed CCAF degree allows McKendree University to waive all general education requirements. The CCAF credits fulfill all general education course work.

2 writing intensive courses are fulfilled with BUS 324 and an additional writing intensive BUS elective.

Students are encouraged to take the following courses in fulfillment of their CCAF degree: Managerial Communication, Legal Aspects of Healthcare, Principles of Management, and Human Resource Management. These courses may fulfill major course requirements. Hours completed for the Bachelor degree must total 120 with no credit hour duplication.

CCAF hours beyond the 60 required for degree completion may be counted up to 90 hours maximum on a case-by-case basis.
